

STF Group Guide: Unexpected Grace

Announcements:

Holy Week Walk-Through Experience: April 14-18

Step into the story of Jesus' final days with our Holy Week Walk-Through Experience. From the warmth of the fire where Peter faced his denial to the weight of the cross on Golgotha, this immersive journey invites you to reflect on the moments leading to the resurrection.

Open Monday from 5 PM to 8 PM and Tuesday through Friday from 8 AM to 8 PM, this self-guided experience will provide space for prayer, reflection, and remembrance. Come and encounter the hope and significance of Easter in a powerful, personal way.

Get more information and announcements at stfchurch.com/events

Discussion Questions:

1. What stood out to you from the sermon? Was there anything that challenged, convicted or confused you?
2. When did the Israelites have problems with disobedience? (Nehemiah 9:25, 28)
3. What can we learn from this?
4. How can we fight the arrogance or complacency that can come when everything is going well?
5. How does God respond to the people's disobedience and rebellion? (Nehemiah 9:26-30)
6. What does God's response tell us about his character?
7. The sermon states, "We silence His voice not always with rebellion, but often with rationalization." Can you share an example of how you've rationalized disobedience in your own life?

STF Group Guide: Unexpected Grace

8. Reflect on the Play-Doh illustration. In what areas of your life might God be trying to bend you right now? Are there any areas where you feel "hardened" to God's voice or leading?
9. What steps can you take to become more moldable?

Prayer:

- Encourage each member of your group to begin to pray for someone in their life who doesn't know Jesus. Commit to pray for them as a group.